PASSAGE

Two people who travel to work on the same train fall in love with each other. They have never spoken. Neither knows for sure that the other person loves them. Just before St Valentine's Day, she decides to buy him a card and hand it over before she gets off the train on St Valentine's Day. She buys the card. She is ready to hand it over, but just before she does, he gives her a card. She is too surprised to give him the one she had bought him. He has chosen the same card for her as she had chosen for him.
